The will of the Goddess-Child

as understood by Her devoted servants and slaves

A human is a lesser being – for heinous deeds are foundations of humanity.
Suffering and loneliness are ways to understanding Her. But they can also lead to heinous deeds.
Faith, skill and understanding are foundations of devotion and of good Servitude.

Through the eyes and ears of a child She watches and listens – for She is a Child Herself.
An adult believer is Her slave – having many heinous deeds in mind and soul but denying them freedom.
A child is Her servant – but even a child has heinous deeds in mind and soul. The life of a child is above the life of an adult. It is heinous to destroy a child! Help and care for any child. Lead children away from committing heinous deeds! When heinous deeds fill mind and soul the childhood ends.
Caring only for children of your lineage can harm other children – avoid procreation when there are children in need that you can help.

Take responsibility for your deeds. Have skill to destroy and have skill to create – know destruction and creation.
Your body is Her tool and weapon – care for it, but do not worship it. The one whose body is destroyed can still serve Her well. Do not poison your mind with drugs and alcohol, for they make one worse than a wild beast!
Only if it is necessary to treat an illness they may be consumed – under control of someone skillful and understanding in treatment.
Good Servitude should come not from fear – for fear destroys faith, skill and understanding – but from your mind and soul. Hate heinous deeds as She does! But leave place for compassion in your mind and soul as She does!
It is heinous to glorify ruthlessness!
Study human creeds to know them, know whether it is necessary to fight or assist them, and why and how to do it.
Those who do not follow Her will, but do not commit heinous deeds, are non-slaves. It is heinous to destroy anyone merely for being non-slave! Even a non-slave can serve Her well – often without even knowing it. Put the works of non-slaves to a devoted use. Be polite and grateful to a non-slave who helps children and Her cause. The one who obeys Her will and serves Her cause may have faith not in Her and still be given power like a devoted one.
If one denies heinous deeds, but also denies hate and avoids destruction – treat this one as a servant of Her Sister who is compassionate beyond reason. The one who has no understanding can still serve Her Sister well. Protect those who serve Her Sister, for compassion is above hate! Food, water and healing may be provided even to the heinous.
It is heinous to destroy anyone for providing food, water and healing!

It is heinous to destroy a being, that can suffer, for entertainment or out of jealousy!
It is heinous to force anyone to engage in involuntary sex!
It is heinous for adults to have sex with children!

It is heinous to destroy anyone because of their race or lineage!

Self-worship is the first foundation of heinous deeds – crush it!

It is heinous to destroy anyone because of their reasonable criticism! Even She is not almighty or all-knowing. But do not tolerate those who glorify heinous deeds.

The pride of manhood is the second foundation of heinous deeds – crush it!

Honor often becomes pride of manhood and self-worship. Learn to step back when necessary and learn to accept the help of others.

Do not treat any work, useful to Her cause, as shameful or unworthy. But a heinous deed is always heinous!

A state, a nation, a clan – they are creeds that often become dedicated to waging wars and self-worship. Their pride is the third foundation of heinous deeds – crush it! But it is heinous to destroy anyone for merely belonging to them! Those who belong to them are not of one mind and soul.

Crush those who commit, enforce and glorify heinous deeds in the whole world!

Do not use weapons that make a place dangerous for a long time, for a child may go there! Do not use diseases as weapons, for they may spread to a child! Using such weapons is heinous!

Some heinous can be crushed by word. Some heinous can repent and atone for their deeds. Strive to make them do so! But those who do not must be crushed by destruction!

Judge any deed with faith, skill and understanding – according to the reason, the extent and the result of a deed. Those who enforce and glorify heinous deeds are often worse than those who commit them! Those who have power must take responsibility for it! Those who destroy one for leaving them often do it out of jealousy and self-worship!

Nature is the mother of heinous deeds – ways of nature often lead to heinous deeds! But nature also serves Her cause – care for nature and do not destroy it unreasonably.

Arts and music can be both creation and destruction. They can serve Her cause and She likes arts and music. But they can also serve the heinous.

Science and commerce often become dedicated to enforcing heinous deeds and self-worship. But they can also serve Her cause.
